Notification of stay of a foreigner

According to the current rules*, the host party is obliged to notify the migration service about the arrival of a foreigner in Kazakhstan, as well as about the change of temporary addresses. Notification of arrival of a foreigner is required within 3 business days since arrival date in Kazakhstan.

Notification is required in all cases, regardless of the purpose of entry - on a visa or under a visa-free regime. The notification is submitted by the host party. The foreigner himself does not need to apply to the migration service.

Notification can be submitted in 2 ways:

1 through the Visa and Migration Portal
vmp.gov.kz

2 through the eQonaq.kz information system

Important: Late submission of the notification entails a fine for the host party in the amount of 10 to 20 MCI. Repeated violation within a year entails a 1-year ban on issuing visa invitations.

Visa-free regime under unilateral agreements

Foreigners from 50 countries do not need a visa to enter the Republic of Kazakhstan. You can use the visa-free regime to visit Kazakhstan for tourism, private and business purposes.

Simplified visa-free entry allows you to freely stay and move throughout the country for 30 calendar days. To do this, it is enough to have a valid passport with you.

Important: the total period of stay in Kazakhstan should not exceed 90 calendar days during each 180-days period, but no more 120 calendar days in 1 calendar year. For a longer stay, we recommend you to apply for an appropriate visa.

Simplified visa procedure for citizens of 48 countries

According to the current regulations, a visa is issued on the basis of an invitation from Kazakhstan side. However, such an invitation is not required for citizens of 48 countries* to obtain a single entry visa for up to 30 days of the following category:

- A3 service
- B1, B3 business
- B10 private
- B12 tourist

This means that you can apply for a visa at the Kazakh Consulate in your country of residence without a letter of invitation from Kazakhstan side.

EN

E-visa

According to the current regulations, citizens of 107 countries* can apply for the electronic visa to Kazakhstan.

In order to apply for the electronic visa, a foreigner will need an invitation letter from the Kazakhstan part (receiving person). The invitation is valid only for the visa recipient, does not apply to accompanying persons or family members and is not subject to renewal on the territory of the RoK.

The electronic visa is obtained through the Visa and Migration Portal vmp.gov.kz.

The following categories of single-entry visas are available for e-Visa:

B1, B2, B3 business	from 30 to 60 days of stay
B12 tourist	up to 30 days of stay
C12 for medical treatment	up to 90 days of stay
A5 investor	up to 90 days of stay

Pay attention:

- you can arrive in Kazakhstan with the electronic visa only by air flight
- when passing through the border control and during your stay in the country, you must have national passport and electronic visa in printed form
- e-Visa holders are exempt from the migration registration (TRP) upon arrival in Kazakhstan. It is sufficient for the host entity to submit a notification to the migration service about your stay in the country. This should be done within 3 business days since your entry date.
- you need to apply for new electronic visa in case of passport renewal/replacement

*list of countries and more detailed information about e-visa to Kazakhstan is available at the link in this QR code

Temporary residence permit (TRP)

A temporary residence permit is issued for citizens of the CIS countries*.

TRP is issued for up to 1 year for the following purposes:

- labor activity (on the basis of an employment and civil contract (for the EAEU countries), a work permit, a labor patent.)
- entrepreneurial activity as a business immigrant
- family reunion
- study
- medical treatment
- missionary activity
- permanent residence
- for victims of human trafficking

The permit is issued by the receiving party (individual or legal entity) at the Public Service Center if there is a notification of the foreigner's arrival (see page 4) and IIN*. Children under 16 years of age do not need a TRP. Accompanying spouse(s), as well as children over 16 years of age, must apply for a TRP.

Important:

- upon leaving Kazakhstan, the TRP remains valid until the end of the issued period. The next time when you enter the country, you do not need to apply for a TRP again.
- Individual Identification Number (IIN) must be corrected after passport change *except Georgia, Moldova, Ukraine. Visa is required for citizens of these countries.

IIN is necessary for a foreigner to open a bank account, receive wages in the territory of the RoK, obtain an EDS, receive public services, pay state duties, consular fees and other payments.

Residence permit

A residence permit (RP) or permanent residence permit is a document that grants foreign citizens the right to reside permanently in Kazakhstan.

A holder of an RP in Kazakhstan receives the following rights and opportunities:

- Residence: The ability to live in any city in Kazakhstan until the RP expires.
- Employment: The right to work in Kazakhstan without needing an additional work permit.
- Business: The ability to engage in entrepreneurial activities, including starting one's own business.
- Travel: Free entry into and exit from Kazakhstan without the need for a visa.
- Property and vehicles: The right to purchase real estate and vehicles.
- Social services: Access to medical and educational services on par with citizens of Kazakhstan.

Residence permit is issued for up to 10 years with the possibility of extension, but not longer than the validity of the passport.

Important:

- Before applying for the RP, it is necessary to obtain a B8 category visa.
- You must reside in Kazakhstan for at least 183 calendar days within any consecutive 12-month period from the date the RP is issued.

EN

A B8 visa can be issued for up to 90 days with the possibility of extension for an additional 30 days. It is also possible to obtain a B8 visa by switching from a C3 visa category or under a visa-free regime.

More about residence permit

Work permit

To employ foreign citizens, an employer must obtain a work permit.

Permits are issued within a quota allocated by region. Employers must submit quota applications annually by October 1 for the following calendar year.

The absence of a quota in the region is one of the reasons for refusal to issue or extend a work permit.

Depending on the category, the permit is issued for 1 to 3 years.

The rules define the following categories:

- First category – top executives and their deputies;
- Second category – heads of structural divisions;
- Third category – specialists;
- Fourth category – skilled workers.

When applying, one of the conditions is compliance with the required ratio of local staff:

- The number of foreign employees in the first and second categories must not exceed 30%;
- The number of foreign employees in the third and fourth categories must not exceed 10%.

Applications for a work permit are submitted electronically through the e-license portal.

The review period for the application is 7 working days.

If a positive decision is made to issue the permit, the employer must pay the state fee within 10 working days.

EN

Please note:

A work permit gives a foreign employee the right to engage in labor activity. To legally stay in the country, they must also obtain a work visa or Temporary Residence Permit (TRP) based on this permit.

Dactyloscopy

As of January 1, 2024, the provisions of the Law on fingerprint (dactyloscopic) registration have come into effect.

This means that foreign nationals over the age of 16 are required to undergo mandatory fingerprint registration* when applying for the following documents:

- Temporary Residence Permit (TRP)
- Residence Permit (RP)
- Visa of the Republic of Kazakhstan
- Stateless person identification card
- Refugee ID
- Travel document
- Deportation or return decision in accordance with concluded international agreements

Where fingerprint registration can be completed:

- At migration service departments at the foreigner's place of stay
- At national security authorities
- At Kazakhstan's foreign missions when submitting visa documents

The following documents are required for this procedure:

- Valid passport
- Individual Identification Number (IIN)

Important: Refusal to undergo the mandatory fingerprint registration procedure results in administrative liability in the form of deportation from the country.

Consular legalization and apostille of documents in Kazakhstan

In order for an official document of Kazakhstani origin to be valid abroad, it must be legalised in Kazakhstan in advance.

There are two types of legalisation of official documents:

- consular legalisation
- apostille

Consular legalisation of documents is required in those countries that have not acceded to the Hague Convention. For example, UAE, Qatar, Egypt, Kuwait, Thailand, Vietnam, etc.

Apostille is a simplified procedure for legalisation of documents between countries that have acceded to the Hague Convention of 5 October 1961.

The following Kazakhstani documents can be legalized or apostilled for submission to other countries:

- education diploma (including an appendix)
- university archive certificate
- general secondary education certificate
- marriage certificate, certificate of birth
- certificate of marriageability
- certificate of criminal record and tax residency
- other official document
